

Thursday, November 19, 2009, Day 3

École River Heights School / Announcements

|                                                                                     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|    | Water polo players please check your game times for this Sunday. All are expected at practice, if you want to play on Sunday unless you talk to Ms. Tetrault first.                                                                                                   |
|   | Volleyball Playoffs start Wednesday! Games will be posted on intramural board and announcements, please pay close attention.TODAY:All grade 8 games are postponed!!12:20- Gr. 7 Girls A vs. E and Gr. 7 Boys E vs. B. |
|  | Art Club today will be BOTH French Vanilla and Doodle Dudes. All interested please meet in room 11 at noon with your lunch. We will begin sculpting today                                                                                                             |
|  | Improv club is cancelled this week as Ms. Gammon is away until Friday Sorry!                                                                                                                                                                                          |
|  | If anyone has lost a scooter please come to the office to claim it before the end of the week ,or they will be donated.                                                                                                                                               |
|  | All Grade 7 and 8 students participating in the Shelmerdine's fundraiser for the Quebec trip - please have your orders and money into Mme. Abra by 3:30 on Friday                                                                                                     |
|  | Reminder to team Benoit and Duhamel about their grade 7 boys volleyball wind up TODAY after school. Money is due to your coach A.S.A.P.. Also, your CLEANED jerseys are due to your respective coach A.S.A.P.                             |