

FOOD

When a kitten is born it's mother breast feeds it. When they get older they eat cat food. Kittens drink milk too. Kittens can have cat food.

Habitat

A kitten lives in a house with someone. I have a cat that is beige and that looks like a cat but it is a kitten. Some kittens live at the humane society and that is where people come to adopt them.

Size

A kitten is about a foot tall although not when they are born. My kitten is a foot tall. When a kitten is born it is about 5 inches long.
